Institut Vert general principles of ethics and conduct:

1. At Institut Vert we are committed to comply strictly with international humanitarian principles and human rights law.
2. Our work is based on the principle of DO NO HARM and it focuses on promoting and supporting policies that respond to chronic needs, to reduce the impact of climate change, to deal with the root causes of poverty, to meet basic needs and human rights, to support communities to become resilient and self-sufficient, to promote green education and social behavior.
3. We are accountable to those whom we seek to represent, to those providing the resources, and to legal authorities.
4. We are transparent in our relations with the government and community partners, the public, contributors and other interested parties.
5. We are independent and we strive to maintain our autonomy according to EU and international law, and to resist the imposition of conditionality or corrupt practices that may compromise our missions and principles.
6. We will not discriminate against any individual or group on the grounds of gender, political affiliation, ethnic origin, religious belief, physical disability or sexual orientation.
